Oh, Yeah???

Ha! Told you!

Great, another assembly!

Dow Jones is down? Better pull out my stock.

The Pepsodent Smile/

Why do WE have to sit on the floor?

Class Will

---

We, Ann Gugliatti and Pam Choinski leave Carlene Pape her famous saying, "Is there anything on my face."

I, Richard Colletti want to leave Toni Depallo my Rambo eyes.

We, the IPS science class of '85-'86 leave Mr. Naz all the histograms, graphs, and SOLUBILITY CURVES in our notebooks.

I, Caryn Stets, leave Jennifer Martin my sympathies for ever going out with Rodney Key.

I, Kristen Berube, leave Mr. Wood a quiet class; Mr. Bourassa a year's supply of homework, Mr. Sullivan a warm room; and Mrs. Drapeau a year's supply of aspirin.

We, the 6th period English Class, leave Mrs. Scordato the thought that we will never forget her baby sausage.

I, Becky Nicosia, leave Karen Steben a recipe and enough ingredients to make hot chocolate until it's done RIGHT!

I, Jennifer Orifice, leave Lisa Nedwick the thought "Are you going to school?"

I, Mrs. O'Brien, leave Joe Linonis, Jen Martin, Kris Kaplan, Lisa Nedwick, and Jennifer Orifice with many thanks for put-up with my whining and crying while putting together the Yearbook. They were there until the bitter end.

I, Stephanie Howard, leave Kim Mahon a date with J.H., whoever he is.

We, Polly, Jennifer, Kris and Jill leave Mr. Emery, GLADLY!

I, Rob Link, leave Eric Vosseller a goofy hat.

We, Kris Kaplan, Stephanie Powers, and Holly Fontana leave Marianne Phelps with the words, "I got an 84."

We, Mr. Wasileski's 3rd period=class leave this to remind him to tuck in his shirt.

We, Mr. Hoza's fourth period Algebra class, leave him thanks for the phrase: "Say to youself-SELF . . . "

I, Michael Phelps, leave my A in Home Ec. to Marianne.

I, Denise Sylvester, leave James Geigaitis the thought that seventh graders aren't that bad after all.

I, Angela Ragno, leave John McCormack this saying to embarrass him for the rest of his life, "John, You're Ugly!"

I, Vicky Thibodeau, leave Mr. Waz my smile.

I, David Dube, leave Mr. Jonaitis, the apple pie of the world, oil fires, and water off the coast of Wyoming, for his "Book of Great Statements".

I, Greg Johnson, leave David Dube an oil well off the coast of Wyoming.

We, Vicky Thibodeau and Heather Spencer, leave Danielle Anderson someone else to tell her jokes to.

I, Jennifer Wojcik, leave Andi and Sherri the word, "E.T.ishly"

I, Marianne Phelps, leave my serious attitude towards school to anyone who needs it!

I, Julie Miranda, leave Kim Mahon a date with Mike Howard.

We, Dan Frenette, Jim Stroiney, and Mark Beaupre leave Sue Bankowski with an interview with I.B.M.

We, Mrs. Siwinski's 5th period class leave her a new bunch of Human Beings, and we use the term loosely.

I, Kathy Murdza leave Dina Jaravella all the locker space that she needs.

I, Sue Bankowski, leave J.F.K. knowing how to spell "tittle".

Mr. Jonaitis leaves an alarm-clock to Sleepy Sutter!

I, October Kyser, leave Becky Burke, Dave Martin.

I, Denice Martell, leave Debbie Plorde this saying, "Somebody's watching you!"

I, Kris Kaplan, leave my team teachers with the thought that at Fermi, I'll try to participate more in class! /

I, Isabelle Agostinho, leave Natalie Ceniglio, all of my homework.

I, Denise Sylvester, leave Lisa Nowak knowing that she's the "Best" friend anyone could have.

I, Lori Thompson, leave Amy Carlander with the thought that I had a great time every time I pushed your button.

I, Tammy Cote, leave Stacie McLean knowing that I'll always be the babysitter for her Cabbage Patch.

I, Kim Mahon leave Stephanie Howard the thought that I liked her "brother" for one day.

I, Jen Martin, leave Chris Potter knowing there can never be a kid like him.

We, Mrs. Bennis's second period class leave her the thought that we will always be her favorite class.
